BOMBAY COURIER
EXTRAORDINARY.

WEDNESDAY, 22D MARCH, 1826.

BY a boat from Bushire, we learn that certain intelligence had been received at Tehran of the death of ALEXANDER, EMPEROR of RUSSIA, on the 23d or 24th November—On finding himself past recovery, the Emperor nominated the Grand Duke Constantine as his successor.—The regular ceremonies of mourning had taken place at Tiflis, and the Oath of Allegiance had been administered to the Officers of Government, and to the troops in Garrison.